All attorneys mentioned herein are members of the Italian Bar association and consequently are permitted to practice before Italian courts. This list also includes those attorneys who can practice up to and including the Supreme Court level.

Many of the functions performed by an attorney in the United States are handled by a notary (notaio) in Italy. Notaries are public officials and are required to have a law degree. Besides notarizing signatures for use in Italy, they usually handle estate matters, real property transactions, etc. For more information on Italian notaries, consult the website of the Italian Board of Notaries at <http://www.notariato.it/en/index.html>

'Commercialisti' are the rough equivalent of CPAs, accountants, auditors, and tax preparers.

Collection of outstanding debts is handled by attorneys whenever litigation is involved. Reliable credit information can be obtained through Italian banks, their US correspondents, or commercial reporting agencies.

Serving legal process: Italy is a party to both the Hague Convention on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents in Civil or Commercial Matters and the Hague Convention on the Taking of Evidence Abroad in Civil or Commercial Matters. American consular officers are prohibited by federal regulations (22 CFR 92.85) from serving legal process on behalf of private litigants or appointing others to do so, except in the case of subpoenas and orders issued by federal courts.
