

American Embassy of Rome Local Internship Program

Our Local Internship Program is open to undergraduate students who are NON-U.S. citizens living in Rome, including non-host country foreign nationals who are legal resident students in Italy, who are 18 years of age, and who are enrolled in a university that has signed an agreement with the Office of Human Resources of Tri-Mission Rome. Undergraduates from various universities have to date benefited from this program and recent internships featured students from Roma Tre University, John Cabot University, LUISS, Tor Vergata University, American University of Rome, Università degli Studi Internazionali (UNINT) and Università Guglielmo Marconi.

Local interns may be assigned duties to include research, economic and political report writing, drafting of correspondence, information systems handling, administrative duties, property management, procurement, financial or HR management, always under the direct supervision of one or more Mission employees.

All interested students should refer to the Ufficio Tirocini or Placement Office of their university, making sure that an agreement for Curricular Internships is in place with the American Embassy of Rome.
